

MEET THE COMMITTEE

SOCIAL SERVICES DAY

Holly Tuchman, LC'95

Co-owner, RobertKent Galleries

Favorite LC Memory: The friendships made and social service day had biggest impact on me.

Advice for LC'25: It's not the destination it's the ride...you will come to the end of the year, making life long friends and learning about your community...but it is the journey along the way that will change you! Enjoy the journey/ride!

Andy Gaines, LC'20

Executive Director, Earl and Rachel Smith Strand Theatre

Favorite LC Memory: How do you choose one?!

Advice for LC'25: For a year, this will go by so quickly. Soak it all up!

Elizabeth Weaver, LC'19

Favorite LC Memory: Lip Sync Night/Skit Night of Final retreat. greatest honor - Receiving the Wyman Pilcher Award.

Advice for LC'25: Do it all. Take advantage of every offering throughout your year and beyond!

Roy Acree, LC'24

Program Manager, Croy Engineering

Favorite LC Memory: Loved every LC day, but if I had to choose a favorite it would be all the fun times we shared...oh, and Spring Retreat!

Advice for LC'25: You'll hear this many times, because it's true, but get out of your comfort zone and lean-in to the program. Some hold back through most of the year, only to feel fully invested near the end and regret not letting go earlier. Enjoy your LC year!

Melanie Kagan, LC'19

CEO, The Center for Family Resources

Favorite LC Memory: It's impossible to choose just one, and the 285 rule applies to a lot of others soooooo. . . I will just say every program experience comes with a great memory or story.

Advice for LC'25: Be all in and be open to what the program provides. Any preconceived notion you have, leave it at the door and just absorb the opportunities in front of you.

Cheryl Musial, LC'07

Chief Strategy Officer, Principal, Mopdog Creative + Strategy; Raising Help

Favorite LC Memory: Too many to list, however, it was such an amazing honor to co-chair in 2013 and working with so many community leaders.

Advice for LC'25: Sit with a different classmate each day to connect and learn more about that individual.

Joe Stockman, LC'20

Owner, BODYBAR Pilates East Cobb

Favorite LC Memory: The class coming together at the spring retreat. Everyone spontaneously circling up at the fire pit.

Advice for LC'25: Meet as many class members as you can one-to-one, outside of formal events, during the course of the year.

Jennifer Peinado, LC'24

Corporate Communications Supervisor, Cobb EMC

Favorite LC Memory: The excitement and joy of opening day!

Advice for LC'25: Let your guard down and truly connect with classmates. You are meant to be where you are and the people around you will become family.

Lynn Wigington, LC'19

Program Manager - Right of Way and Land Acquisition, CROY Engineering

Favorite LC Memory: Fall Retreat - Deep dives and reflection and the beginning of lasting relationships.

Advice for LC'25: To whom much is given, much is expected. "Be a goldfish." - Ted Lasso

Kara Johnson, LC'24

MEMORIES

Amy Selby, LC'15

EVP of Marketing and Communications, Cobb Chamber of Commerce

Favorite LC Memory: Presenting mountains of journals to our Class Co-Chairs, Bonnie and Stewart at Spring Retreat

Advice for LC'25: Your time as a class member is limited and so special. Don't wait for any length of time to commit to your own personal/professional growth and to strengthening the bond of your class. Every program day has opportunities for connection -- seize them!

Karen Hallacy, LC'12

Development Authority of Cobb County

Favorite LC Memory: Spring retreat. I'd share but the 285 rule prevents that. 😊

Advice for LC'25: Get to know every person in your class well even if you don't think you have much in common. You will find your paths crossing many, many times in the future and the connections you make this year will be priceless in your future. Second, savor the memories and especially the laughs. Those, too, will be priceless.
