GATEWAY MARIETTA CID

Established in 2014 by commercial property owners for the purposes of improving local infrastructure and public safety, Gateway Marietta CID is comprised of 73 commercial parcels. Estimated to generate more than $600,000 in revenue for 2023, GMCID continues to work closely with property owners, the City of Marietta, and other stakeholders to enhance the Franklin Gateway area. With thriving businesses and world-class sports and entertainment, GMCID is a strong business community working together to affect positive change. GMCID is home to abundant opportunities and 21st-century technology. As one of the first CIDs to install mobile license plate readers, it continues its efforts to partner with the City of Marietta to positively impact public safety efforts.

As GMCID has made improvements through the years, the goal has been to improve the perception of the area. Capitalizing on the 2019 Corridor Project along South Marietta and Delk Road, GMCID is beginning the Delk Road Corridor Enhancement Project. Incorporating recommendations from the recently completed Atlanta Regional Commission-funded study, GMCID has plans for enhancements to the Delk Road Corridor for more impactful landscaping as well as implementing identified creative placemaking opportunities. The work being done is making a visible difference and enhances the welcoming feel of the community. gatewaymarietta.org

MEETING THE DEMAND

The Be Pro Be Proud initiative was launched in Georgia in July 2020 by the Cherokee Office of Economic Development to target students ages 13 through their senior year of high school. BPBP's goal is to help students find their pathway where something clicks. Its interactive workshop revolutionizes the way people think about skilled professions, engaging students with hands-on modules that spark curiosity while outlining jobs and the necessary training to fulfill today's most in-demand careers.

Interested schools book a tour stop through beproberoudga.org. Requirements such as minimum designated space, student accommodations, and time limits must be met. Tour manager Reggie LaGrone and tour driver Matthew "Hutch" Hutcherson engage with students aboard the trailer, guiding them into careers or training that fit their unique skillsets and interests.

"I love that I get the opportunity to experience today's youth and have a better grasp on where our future is headed," Hutch says. "The majority of the students that we meet have an idea of where they want to be because they know where they don't want to be. They're taking on more responsibility for their own actions and those outcomes than the generations before them."

"The thing that I like most about my job is being able to have a positive influence on the students," said LaGrone. "We had a project in one of the mobile workshop last year try out the welding simulator for the first time and afterward decided that's what he wanted to do after graduation. He went home and found his dad's welder in the basement and started playing around with it. He even used the welder for a project in one of his classes. I'm proud to know that we sparked a change in that young man's life."
