Is there anything else you would like your blitzer to know?

My classroom is my happy place - I spend more hours there than I do at home during the school year. Creating a space that is safe, comfortable, and designed with intention to facilitate learning is important. I love being a teacher, I love my students, and I appreciate the celebrations and gifts this year. I don't do this job for the thanks, but the thanks sure make doing this job fun! Thank you for taking the time to recognize what me and my colleagues do!
